The Evening Post.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

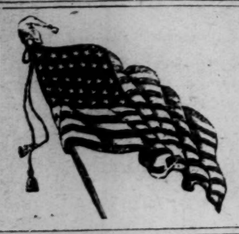
Monday, August 25th, 1873.



The Tax Question.

In our local columns to-day appears the report of the Committee appointed by the County Commissioners in relation to taxation. It will be read with interest, and, being official, will have its influence. It will be seen that our Democratic Legislature, which is always loud when talking of reform, has increased instead of diminished the State taxes. The cry of "retrenchment and reform" is a very common one among the "outs" in any part of the land, but the Democrats have been so persistently noisy on this subject, that we ask of our readers a careful and thoughtful examination of the subject. Let it be borne in mind that the public debt has not been reduced by this Legislature, and we wait for some of their admiring newspapers to show us why the State tax has been increased from 38½ cents on the $100 in 1872, to 50½ cents in 1873. This is not for school purposes, for we have an increase on the poll tax of 25 cents for that purpose.

This report does not show the amount of taxes collected in this city, for the "schedule B" tax, including licenses, etc., cannot be estimated, and the receipts are devoted to the liquidation of the County debt. The amount is large, and in the proceedings of the Commissioners published to-day appears a record of the destruction of some of our bonds. We believe the Commissioners are doing all they can to carry out the laws faithfully and equally. They profess entire willingness to correct any errors in assessments, which sometimes unavoidably occur, and instead of vituperation they should be thanked for the economical manner in which they have performed their arduous duties.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

An adjourned meeting of the Board was held Saturday afternoon.

The bond of the Clerk of Federal Point Township was ordered to be referred back to the Board of Trustees of said township for justification of the sureties on said bond.

The report of the Board of Trustees of Wilmington Township in reference to the financial condition, &c., of said township, was received and ordered to the Auditing Committee for report.

A duplicate of returns on Constitutional Amendments was presented by the Sheriff, received and ordered on file.

Wm. Evans, of Union Township, an old, helpless and decrepid man, having applied for assistance, was ordered sent to the Poor House for proper treatment.

Applications of R. C. Bordeaux, Alfred Pridgen, David Wilson, William Racklef and Guilford Marshall, disabled and afflicted persons, for exemption from poll-tax, were received and ordered granted.

Matilda Cannon, asking aid from the county, was allowed assistance to an amount not to exceed $4 per month.

It was ordered that the Clerk enquire by letter as to the expense of putting the bridges at Washington Creek, Rockfish Creek and Sills Creek in proper repair by some one residing near the same, and that a report be made at the next meeting.

It was ordered that, in the opinion of the Board, it is not advisable at the present time to expend further sums for new bridges.

Application of the jurors in the Willie Carter murder case, for compensation for the time they have been sitting on said case, was received and ordered referred to the County Attorney for his opinion.

The following jurors, comprising the special venire, were drawn for the October term of the Superior Court.

First Week—M C Bowden, Jas Pickett, John Beauford, Frank Clinton, H C Evans, W H Morgan, A H VanBokkelen, B M Gurganus, John Eakins, John Evans, C P Pridgen, A J Sullivan, Robert Tate, Samuel Orr, J W King, Levi McAllister, W J Newton, J J Coleman, James Andrews, J W Collins, D R Murchison, Samuel Blumenthal, C W Futch, Bryant Fonville, Thos Hall, H P West, John N Woodcock, S A Currie, Allen Simmons, A A Willard, John McEntee, Guy Hall, H. VonGlahn, John Moore, G C Kelly.

Second Week—Thos H Howey, J W Rainey, Newkirk Southerland, Hugh Wells, Preston Cumming, Samuel J Sneed, Daniel Venters, James R Corbett, G W Bonham, Mark Johnson, Boney Wells, A B George, Geo A Peck, Richard Howard, Jordan Lemmons, J W Lippitt, W Wakins, John Suggs.

It was ordered that from this date the Clerk of the Board be instructed to draw warrants in conformity with the instructions on the newly adopted form of the Auditing Committee and in no other manner.

On motion, the following bonds of the denomination of $100 each, having attached thereto two coupons, dated March 1st, 1869, and due March 1st, 1874, were, in the presence of A. H. Morris, L. E. Rice and Delaware Nixon, Commissioners, and M. London, County Attorney for the Board, burned and totally destroyed. The numbers of the same are as follows, to-wit: 236, 234, 233, 232, 237, 235, 231, 229, 230, 228, 278, 178, 144, 142, 143, 148, 147, 146, 145, 179, 177, 176, 180, 174, 175, 173, 170, 169, 160, 158, 159, 156, 157, 155, 154, 149, 150, 153, 183, 181, 182, 184, 185, 186, 188, 227, and 187; being, altogether, 47 bonds of the denomination above mentioned.

It was ordered by the Board that the Clerk prepare and post the usual statement required by law relative to county receipts and expenditures, and such other matters in connection therewith as may be required, for the fiscal year ending August 31st, 1873.

Commissioner Rice, from the Finance Committee, submitted the following REPORT.

NEW HANOVER COUNTY
In Board of County Commissioners,
August 23d, 1873.

The Committee on Finance, to whom was referred all petitions for allowance for excessive taxation, respectfully submit the following report:

We have examined all the complaints presented to the County Commissioners to and including Friday, the 22d inst., and carefully examined the case of each individual applicant. A very large number of the claims are of a general character, and set forth no particular reason for a revision of the assessment. We have, however, waived requirements of law that the Commissioners might properly insist upon, and each petitioner has had his claim determined from the evidence before us, obtained from such records and information as could be had by diligent inquiry.

There are eighty-seven complaints of excessive taxation, of which number thirty appear to be well grounded.—Fifty-four do not in our opinion have reasonable cause, and upon three, further information is necessary to determine.

These complaints do not comprise any from the city of Wilmington. Your committee have not had time to give that attention to the petitioners from the city that they desire, and ask further time in the matter.

We file herewith the names of the persons, and the sums to be remitted as determined by us to be just and equitable. In each of these cases it appeared that the township boards had increased the valuation without a corresponding increase of lands or betterments. The Commissioners presumed that the township boards valued the property in the township in which they were sitting, in a uniform manner, and this excessive increase in the cases in which we recommend that a portion of the tax be remitted, has been occasioned either by the person giving in the tax too high, as compared with others in the township, or a want of proper care on the part of the township board to so adjust the values of separate properties, that the burden of taxation shall fall on all alike. It is not the sole duty of a township board to satisfy the property owners with the valuation; not only the law, but their duty as upright men, requires them to go much further. If the valuation of A is for only one-fourth of the value required by law, and the valuation of B one-half, both are satisfied and willing to approve the assessment of a Board endorsing such inequality of valuation. The duty of township boards under the law is, however, plain. Each and every piece of property must be valued at its full value in cash at a voluntary sale. The estimated value by the owner the board is not bound to accept. If this had been the rule, and the boards of all the townships composed of men who think and determine alike as to the value of property, the Commissioners would seldom be called upon to revise the lists of township boards. The constitution of the State, and legislative enactments, have provided, however, against any wide difference of opinion as to the value of property by the assessors in the several townships, giving a revisory power to the Commissioners, to see that as to the value of lands so shall the tax be levied, and intelligent men can see the necessity for such provisions of law.

The average value of land, per acre, as revised by the Commissioners are as follows: Harnett, $4 98, Rocky Point, $4 38; Cape Fear, $3 71; Grant, $3 56; Holden, $3 35; Masonboro, $2 96; Lincoln, $2 94; Caswell, $2 79; Federal Point, $2 72; Union, $2 51; Columbia, $2 32; Holly, $2 04. The assessors in Columbia returned the average value of lands at 93 cents per acre, while the assessors in Harnett averaged the value at $6 22 per acre. It is plain that there was, in this case, a wide difference of opinion between the township boards of Harnett and Columbia as to the value of property. The Commissioners very properly revised this great inequality and proceeded in the same manner to make uniform the assessments that all townships should, as near as possible, be burdened alike. In the case which we have recommended no action the valuation does not appear to have been changed from last year, and the only increase is by the Commissioners in their revision and equalization of assessments. No reasonable taxpayer should feel agrieved in paying equally, as to the value of his property, with individuals in all other townships.

The rate paid on each $100 for county purposes is less this year than in 1872, being 36 2-3 cents, against 41 2-3 cents levied in that year. The State tax has been increased from 38½ cents on each $100 in 1872 to 50½ cents in 1873. While for county purposes the Commissioners levied a less tax than in 1872. The General Assembly by levying a tax of 50½ cents increased the total tax $5 on each one thousand dollars worth of property. There is also complaint made of the 25 cents additional poll tax. Over this the Commissioners had no control. Section 37, chapter 90, acts of 1872-'73, provides that in addition to the State and county capitation, taxes appropriated by the Constitution, the shall be levied and collected 25 cents on every poll, in addition to the taxes in the revenue law, for the maintainance of public schools.

The amount of taxes levied in all the townships outside of the city of Wilmington for 1873 is, for State, $12,223. For county purposes, $8,910. In 1870 the farm products in the same townships was $634,083. After deducting the cost of all labor including board of the same which amounted to $179,092, it would leave a sum sufficiently respectable to appear that after deducting the expenses of living of the owners of these farms a tax of $21,000 would not be grevious to bear, provided, as it is reasonable to infer that the income from farm products is as great this year as in 1870.

One other matter to which we wish to call the attention of the Commissioners is the expenditures which have been made on account of the townships, not including Wilmington, for the fiscal year ending August 31st, 1873. Your Committee made a careful examination into the accounts, and separated the expenses incurred by the city of Wilmington from the other townships. We find that the sum of $20,648 has been expended during the year to be properly charged to account of townships outside of Wilmington and that the tax levied in the same townships for 1872, to meet these expenditures is $8,155. This statement may be of value to you in determining the sums to be appropriated for townships the ensuing year.

Your Committee do not believe that the complaint of excessive taxation is general, as claimed for some eight or nine townships. For the ordinary expenses of the county and the payment of the bonded debt, provision must be made and we believe all good citizens are willing to bear a share of the burden proportionate to the amount of property they own. There are probably yet some instances where errors have occured and proper claims to be adjusted, and we are confident that every citizen will have a fair hearing and an equitable adjustment in all cases of this kind.

LAWSEN E. RICE,
Acting Chairman.

Adjourned to the first Monday in September.

EDITORIAL BUDGET.

— An attempt was made on the 20th to capture the paymaster's car on the Hannibal and St. Joseph railroad, between Cameron and Kansas City, by a a gang of men who are thought to be the same who robbed the Rock Island railroad train some time since. The engineer saw the men obstructing the track, and reversed the engine and ran back to Cameron.

— Dispatches from Alexandria give particulars of the loss of a freighting steamer bound from Singapore and Shanghai to London. The vessel was wrecked in the Red Sea, near the eastern entrance. The captain, officers, and some of the crew were lost.—Thirty-six of the men succeeded in gaining the land, but fell into the hands of the Somaulees, a Mohammedan tribe on the shore of the Gulf of Aden, by whom they are held prisoners.

OTTO SCHUTZE,
Observer, U. S A.

THANKFUL.—A man fell into the river this morning while at work on a flat, but was rescued by his companions. After his rescue he abused his friends for not saving his hat.

THROWN.—A person indulging in a horse back ride yesterday afternoon met with quite a painful accident by being thrown on the brick pavement near the corner of 4th and Chestnut streets.

AGAIN DEFERRED.—J. H. Carraway's condition remaining statu quo, he was unable to appear at Court this morning, and as a consequence the case in which he is the principal witness was postponed until he is able to come out.

HABEAS CORPUS.—An application was made before Judge Russell, by Adam Empie, Esq., attorney for Mrs. Carter, for a writ of habeas corpus, which was granted and the matter investigated. His Honor held her in the sum of $2,000 bail for her appearance at October Court.

HORRIBLE.—It is reported that the body of the colored man, found drowned a few days ago and buried near Hilton, has been partially dug up and mutilated by beasts. There should be a place devoted to the burial of such unfortunates, where they cannot be molested.

YESTERDAY morning was bright and beautiful, and the Churches were well filled. Rev. Dr. Watson preached at St. James', Rev. Geo. Patterson at St. John's, Rev. T. M. Ambler at St. Paul's, Dr. Bernheim at the Lutheran, Father White at St. Thomas', Elder Hiden at the Baptist, and Rev. Dr. Moran at the Front Street Methodist. There was no service held at the Presbyterian Church.

SICK AMONG STRANGERS.—We are pained to hear of the serious illness of Mr. E. M. Cushing, at Gordonsville, Va. Mr. C. was on his way home from the mountains of Virginia, where he had been spending a few weeks, and was taken suddenly ill, and remained in an unconscious state for several hours. The last dispatches report a slight improvement, and we are in hopes of seeing him among us in a few days.

TRIED TO "HOG ON HIM."—Saturday night about half past eight, a clerk in Mr. Fred. Heyer's grocery store discovered one Henry King throwing a piece of bacon out of the back window of the store into the yard, and then pick it up and start for the street. The clerk nabbed him and turned him over to Sergeant Van Solen, who carried him to the lock up. He had a hearing before the Mayor this morning who bound him over to the Superior Court.

Mayor's Court.

His Honor W. P. CANADAY, Mayor, presiding.

A case of disorderly conduct was submitted to by the defendants, who were discharged on the payment of costs.

Pat Flinn, for being disorderly on the streets yesterday, was fined $20 and cost.

Henry King, charged with larceny, was bound over in the sum of $50 for his appearance at the next term of the Superior Court.

Louis Goss, for committing a nuisance on the street, was fined $10.

Betty Faison, Louis Merrick. Nelson Green, Ed. Wilkins, and Caroline Frink were continued until to-morrow.

Lewis Merrick and Scipio Hill were continued until to-morrow.

ACCIDENTAL DROWNING.—Yesterday morning, about one o'clock, while a party of colored boys were in bathing in the bay on Topsail Sound, one of the party named ——— Hines, about 18 years old, and who could not swim very well, ventured out too far. He was unable to get back, and before assistance could be rendered, sank to rise no more. The boys who were in bathing with Hines are much smaller than he was and of course could not have rendered him much assistance. The news was conveyed to his parents, who did all in their power to get the body, but up to the time of our informant's departure it had not been recovered.

Delaware Nixon dragged the Sound with his seine from half-past one until five o'clock, in hopes of getting the body, but his efforts were without success.

THE TOWN CRIER.

— Mild.

— Gold is 116.

— Rain yesterday.

— Mr. Carraway is a little better.

— Church congregations are increasing.

— Mr. Weill has gone North for Fall goods.

— Mr. L. E. Rice started on his vacation this morning.

— Now is the time to advertise houses to rent in the POST.

— The Lucy Vick displayed her many flags and signals yesterday.

— There never was more building in this city than during this season.

— Water is very plentiful. All we need in the river, and more than enough on the land.

— Judge Russell and several Attorneys went down to Smithville this morning for Brunswick Court.

— The Bank of New Hanover building—the handsomest in the State—is rapidly approaching completion.

— There has been a great scarcity of fires for a long time. We hope it may so remain, until all our fire engines rust out.

— We learned yesterday, by actual experiment, that four persons could not eat a forty-seven pound watermelon.—But it was good.

Saturday Night Sketches.

A clear, delightfully cool Saturday night, It seems as though the god of the storms was particularly careful of our people and provided clear hours in which to make their purchases. Though we have had severe storms Saturday afternoons, and at midnight and sometimes rain every day for a week, not one rainy Saturday night has occured for months. Who shall say that the winds and the rains are not for mankind? They have their bounds which they cannot pass, and are controlled for the comfort of poor humanity. And so to-night, though a thunder storm had visited us before dark, a clear star-light and delighful breeze welcomed the tired laborer, and the sketch gatherer as well. The vegetables and fruits were all fresh and inviting, and the lazy mules vibrated their extended ears and the patient oxen lay by their carts, chewing their cuds in contentment and peace. Even mosquitoes were less persistent than usual, and every body was busy. The cigar counters were crowded as usual, and many a box of "five cent cigars" was exhausted, as men with but little of this world's goods, came up with friends and treated to the weekly luxury.

The poor are always liberal, and at these counters we see men divide the coveted luxury with their friends, when it may have cost them hours of severe labor to accumulate the money thus lavished. Who would not go to a poor man for assistance or sympathy. It seems as though their hearts were larger and they experienced a greater joy in their trifling services, than does the rich man who gives of his abundance, with no sacrifice or even inconvenience. Its best to be a poor man, "one of whom we which," though we admit we should like to try the experience of giving of an abundance just once.

Our colored friends are good judges of tobacco and the five cent cigars they invest in, are no cabbage leaves. At Geo. Myers' store, the quality is good and though retailed at five cents each, they cannot be bought for less by the thousand. We know but little of mercantile life, and do not appreciate or comprehend "leaders" but it seems funny to us to see a man sell one cigar for five cents, when he charges fifty dollars for a thousand of them. Such, however, is the fact. But these sketches are all facts. Every incident narrated, is a truthful report of an actual occurrence, and no flight of fancy or freak of imagination is indulged in.

And now totters along old "maum" Sally, feeble and sick, with a large basket on her arm, filled with the various articles that make up the coming week's subsistence, and clasped to her aged bosom, a large watermelon. "Oh, bress de Lord," she pants, as she lifts herself up on the curbstone, "I'se so tired."—"What's the matter, aunty," some sympathiser says, as she leans for a moment against the awning post. "Oh sah, I'm so sick; I'se got de fever." "Well, what are you going to do with that melon," he asks, "don't you know it will make you sick?" "Oh yes sah," old aunty says in broken sentences, and she catching her breath, "I spect he will, sah, but I can't help dat. I mus' have de milion, sah, I does love 'em so much." And aunty totters home with the lucious fruit clasped in her aged arms, eager to enjoy its refreshing flavor with her humble household.

A young man from the country enters one of our handsome clothing stores with a friend. They have been having a gay time. Hats on the side of their heads, cigars of course, and a general swagger of independence and self-possession. After making some trivial purchases, they turn to the young man rolling up the goods and one of them, who appears to be the disbursing officer of the party, suddenly espies a row of "Lubin's extracts," and drawing his wallet from his pocket, points to the little bottles and, evidently with a thought of some gentle rustic beauty among the pine trees, says, "mister, give me a bottle of yer best musk cologne." "Those small bottles." says the smiling and ever obliging proprietor.—"One dollar, if you please." "What!" cries our rustic friend. "One dollar for one of those little bottles? No sir." And out they swagger. We thought that Mary Ann would have to go without "ary" Lubin on her homespun dress after all, and while he told her, under the light of the pale moon, of the wonders of the city, he would carefully refrain from relating his experience with the "little bottles of musk cologne."

And now, breaking into the discords as the sun sometimes suddenly bursts through the rain clouds, and smiles amid Nature's tears, comes the wonderful bird-like tones from the whistler.—There is but one "Fred" in the world who can whistle, and his extraordinary execution must be heard to be appreciated. We can whistle well enough to call a dog, if he is not too particular, ourself, and we thought we knew something of the art, but we always remove our "tile" when "Fred" passes. With the clearness and peculiar ripple of the picalo, trills not to be executed by fingers, and, above all, two distinct sounds at once, We believe our city contains the champion whistler of the world, and his wonderful gift should be the road to fortune. But Fred is content to give an exhibition of his unequaled powers at any time, on all occasions, and with remarkably good humor. Long live our great natural musician, and may his extraordinary genius never desert him.

Midnight comes so quietly that its advent is hardly noticed save by the quiet that now reigns almost supreme, and the glorious Sabbath is ushered in, with no cries of distress or discordant sounds to break the solemn stillness.—The ledgers are all closed, the increased amounts of money in the hands of dealers is carefully counted and placed in the safes, one by one the store doors close with a bang, and even the robbers who have lately made our midnight pedestrians fearful, were at rest. And may all Saturday nights close as calmly and as peacefully.

THE FORGERY TRIAL.

The case of David S. Massey, charged with forgery, came up this morning at the Court House before 'Squire Gardner. John London, Esq., appeared as prosecutor. The following is a brief report of

THE EVIDENCE.

A. A. BROWN sworn—I never signed that check. I saw it this morning at Mr. Munson's but never saw it before. I never signed that check or any other check on the Bank of New Hanover on the 7th of August. I saw the defendant on the Steamer Hurt on the 8th of July and again on the 11th of July at the boat. On that day he went to the Bank of New Hanover with me, I filled up a check which I signed and got the money. He told me his name was Wm. Stratton.

CROSS EXAMINED.

Mr. Maultsby was with me when I saw the defendant at the steamer.

H. H. MUNSON sworn.—I have seen that check. It was presented by the defendant who called his name D. S. Muldro. He presented the check for $50 and bought a $30 suit of clothes. I received the check and paid him $20 in cash. I knew Mr. Brown who had been out of the city. I sent up the check to see if it was good. Defendant told me that Brown had a store and a still and that he had been in his employ and this was given him in payment of his services. He tried the suit on. I wrapped up the coat and pants and a light vest the defendant wore.—He wore off the new vest. I am certain the defendant is the man who got the clothes.

A. B. STRATTON sworn—Defendant deposited a suit of clothes with me, It was a black coat and pants, and a light vest, wrapped in a bundle, with H. H. Munson's name on the paper. It was at Gilbert's saloon.

J. N. VANSOLEN sworn—A warrant was put in my hand to arrest a man named Muldro, I took a clerk from Mr. Munson to identify the man. I searched about the city, and finally found him on the corner of Fourth and Castle streets, in a house of ill-fame. The clerk identified the man, and I took him. I told him he must go with me, and he said all right. I got the suit of clothes from Mr. Stratton, and he changed the vest in the Magistrate's office, and took out the light vest, and sent back the other one. Defendant has on the vest now.

CROSS-EXAMINED.

It was early in the evening. Defendant was sitting in a chair by the table. Don't know how long he had been there.

I. B. GRAINGER sworn—I don't know that I know Mr. Brown's signature. I have his genuine signature here. Upon comparison, I should say it was not the same signature, though it resembles it. Mr. Brown had money in my Bank and this is a check on the bank.

S. B. THOMAS sworn—I have seen defendant in Mr. Katz's store in July. It was about the middle of July. Mr. Katz said he had a check and sent out a check to get it changed, and I waited on him to sell him goods. I didn't see the check. Defendent said that he would like to get a check changed before getting the goods. Don't know of my own knowledge the value of the check. He said his name was Brown, and that his uncle's name was Brown.

STATEMENT BY DEFENDANT.

I emphatically deny ever passing a check on Mr. Munson. If I bought the goods I paid the cash for them. I bought a suit of clothes of some one, but never attempted to pass a check on Mr. Katz and emphatically deny committing this crime. I deny ever calling my name Stratton, Muldro or Massey. I was registered at the National Hotel with my own name. There was no reason for me to adopt these names. I work on the Cape Fear river and after giving a large portion of my earnings to my mother and four little children, I buy clothes for myself. I heard Mr. Hall wanted some men and I come down here to get employment. I have worked hard for my living since 1872, and expect to.

BY THE COURT.

The Court must, under the evidence, hold the defendant in the sum of one thousand dollars, for his appearance at the next term of the Superior Court.

MONTANA.

MUSSEL SHELL RIVER, AUG. 19.
VIA FT. BENTON, AUG. 23.

The abundant preparations which the Yellowstone expedition made for the reception of the Indians have been fully justified. August 14, Gen. Custar with Bloody Knife and a squadron of cavalry were detailed by Gen. Stanly to go on several miles ahead of the wagons and look up a road. When gone about ten mlles ahead they halted and picketed their horses in a wood by the river to wait for the train. Two hours afterwards six Indians appeared on the plain and made demonstrations toward the camp. A dismounted line of skirmishers were thrown out, the horses saddled and the Indians easily driven off, but they proved a decoy of a large party in the neighboring wood waiting in ambush for the cavalry. Finding the ruse failed, the Indians to the number of 300 boldly rode out and advanced on the ground occupied by the cavalry. Gen. Custer had one squadron, 80 men, under command of Capt. Maylen. The men were again dismounted and formed in line. The Indians also formed a line in a circle around the cavalry, who had the river at their back. Rapid firing was kept up at the distance of 400 yards Gen. Custer deferred charging, hoping the main command would soon come up and assist in capturing the Indians. After a three hours fight his ammunition gave out. He then charged the Indians, who precipitately fled, dropping many of their equipments. After retreating several miles, they took to bad lands. One man slightly wounded in the arm, and one horse wounded, formed the extent of Gen. Custar's loss. While the fight was going on, several Indians left the war party in search of stragglers from the train. Coming upon Dr. Hausinger, veterinery surgeon, and Mr. Bolarin, cavalry sutler, who were less than a mile from the column, they killed them and took their clothes and valuables. Private Jno. Ball, while out hunting, met a similar fate. In this fight two Indians were killed and several wounded; they lost several prisoners. General Stanly directed Gen. Custar to take the cavalry, numbering 450 men, and follow the trail, and if possible overtake and punish the Indians. Gen. Custar left on the night of the 8th, and on the morning of Aug. 9th he was attacked by a band of 800 Indians who come down to the river and fired on his camp. The firing was returned for two or three hours, both parties using trees as a cover. A party of 300 Indians then crossed the river above and below the camp and endeavored to gain the bluffs in the rear. The men were dismounted and posted on the bluffs and received them bravely. The Indians beyond the ridges kept up a galling fire until General Custar ordered a charge. The men then mounted and pursued them hotly for 8 miles. Just at this [illegible] opened on the [illegible] A few shots dispersed them and ended the fight.

This battle, which took place within two miles of the Big Horn, was a fierce one. Gen. Custar and Adjutant Ketcham had their horses shot under them. Lieut. Braden was badly shot in the thigh. Private Tuttle, Gen. Custar's orderly, was killed, and 20 soldiers slightly wounded. Four horses were killed, and three wounded. The Indian loss is estimated by Gen. Custar at 40 killed and wounded. The Indians were well armed with heavy rifles and had abundant ammunition. Some were dressed in clothes procured at the agencies.—These were mainly Uncapapas, supposed to be under the command of Sitting Bull, and also supposed to have received their supplies from Fort Peck, on the Missouri.

The expedition arrived at Pompey's Pillar on the 15th, and reached Mussel Shell, 150 miles from Fort Benton, on the 19th. It is now homeward bound. Gen. Stanley expects to reach Fort Rice by the 1st October. The health of the command is good. Lieut. Braden is getting on well.

BY MAIL,
COMMERCIAL AND LOCAL.

It should be in the hands of every man who desires to know what has transpired during the day, and, as it aims to give its publisher hopes it will prove a welcome guest in many families.

THE POST

is sprightly without being sensational, and it carefully excludes all objectionable incidents and reports calculated to offend the sensibilities of the most fastidious. As an

Advertising Medium

it claims to be first class. It has a good and constantly increasing circulation, and is read by almost every business man in the city. Politically the POST is UNSWERVINGLY REPUBLICAN.

Its editor having been a consistent member of that party since 1855, through its vicisitudes and triumphs, he claims to speak advisedly when advocating its principles. He is not, however an "extremist," and accords to others what he claims for himself, the right of free thought and of free speech.

THE ADVERTISING RATES of the POST, like its subscription price, are at liberal and at living prices, as an examination of them will show, and it bespeaks a share of public patronage.

THE EVENING POST

is closely identified with the local welfare of the Cape Fear region, and the believers in progress, whether

EDUCATIONAL,
AGRICULTURAL,
MECHANICAL, or COMMERCIAL,

will find an enthusiastic ally in THE POST.

is opposed to monopolies, but in favor of internal improvements, and a firm believer in the patronage and support of home enterprises and institutions.

Will contain Selected Editorials from the Daily Times; General News, Domestic and Foreign; The Proceedings of Congress and the State Legislatures; Full and Interesting Correspondence; Book Reviews; The Choicest Literary Selections; while its most prominent feature will be a COMPLETE AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENT, with original articles from practical farmers; full reports of the American Institute Farmers' Club; complete weekly market reports; financial, domestic produce, live stock, dry goods and general.

AS A FAMILY PAPER,
The TIMES will have no superior; it will be free from all appeals to vulgar and impure tastes, and may be safely admitted to every domestic circle.

AS A REPUBLICAN JOURNAL,
The TIMES will be devoted, as in the past, to an intelligent and firm support of the Republican Party. Its course in reference to the Tammany Ring, at a time when all the other daily papers in New York obstructed and discouraged its efforts, attests its sincerity in the cause of Reform. The TIMES stood alone in demanding Reform from 1869 to the close of 1871, and there is no sincere and honest proposal for Reform, in any branch of the Government, which will not be heartily supported by the TIMES. But it will not conspire in assisting ambitious politicians or demagogues to reach power under false pretenses. It will not encourage defection from the Republican Party, which is still the party of progress, security and national prosperity.

It will sustain, with all the force and influence at its command, the principles and policy which have rendered that party so justly famous in our history. It will advocate those measures by which the honor, the peace, and the prosperity of the nation can be best secured and promoted, and will constantly study the wants of the people rather than the wishes of the politicians.

THE NEW YORK SEMI-WEEKLY TIMES
Is published every Tuesday and Friday, and contains all the agricultural and literary matter of the Weekly edition, and a full and careful compilation of editorial and news features of the Daily.

Terms of the Semi-Weekly TIMES: One copy, one year. $3; two copies, one year, $5; ten copies, one year, $25—and one extra copy free.

Subscripttons to either of our editions received for a less length of time than one year at yearly rate.

These prices are invariable. Remit in drafts on New York or Post-office Money Orders, if possible, and where neither of these can be procured, send the money in a registered letter. All Post-masters are obliged to register letters when requested to do so, and the system is an absolute protection against losses by mail. Address

We especially call the attention to the following testimonials of the Paint:

C. P. Knight, Esq.—Dear Sir: I have used Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint on my dwelling last Spring, and am much pleased with it, and it looks as well now as when first painted, and consider it a good Paint. Yours, truly,
Creswell P. O., Hartford county, Md., Feb. 6th, 1873. A. H. STRASBAUGH.

THE PLAINS, FAUQUIER CO., VA., Feb. 6th, 1873.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Sir: The Paint came safely to hand as ordered—two kegs, five gallons each, and three buckets, one gallon each. As practice was slack, I did the job myself. Two weeks, (not constant work,) completed the house two coats. The last coat I applied thick, and it is now generally conceded that for enamel-like hardness, and body, and harmony of colors, there is not a handsomer job in the place. I saved sixty-five dollars by the operation, which is an item just now with Southern people. It should be generally adopted in this State. Any country lad can apply it. I have never dabbled in such stock as testimonials, but I feel so forcibly the great adaptability of your "Enamel Paint" to the wants of our people, in excellency of material, in beauty of color, and in the fact of its being "ready mixed" that I give you free permission, (if it is desirable to you,) to make what use you think proper of this letter.
Very respectfully and truly,
S. McGILL, M. D.

TO THE PUBLIC—It affords me much pleasure to state that in July, 1871, Front Street Theatre was painted inside and out with "Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint," for which C. P. Knight, No. 93 West Lombard Street, is agent, and, to testify to its superiority over any and all other paints for similar uses. In no private dwelling can paint possibly be subjected to the very severe test it undergoes at this establishment, where, during our daily cleaning, soap and soda are constantly applied to it, and yet it appears as sound and fresh as when put on. Of the numerous advantages it possesses over other paints, I will only mention its being mixed and ready for use in quantities to suit purchasers, its quickly drying properties, which saves much time in the execution of work were paint is needed, and its very perceptibie tenacity, which imparts beauty and durability to the objects on which it is used. As such I most earnestly recommend it to the merchants and tradesmen of our city, believing it will give them greater satisfaction than they can possibly anticipate.
WM. E. BINN,
BALTIMORE, April 25, 1873. Front Street Theatre.

CHAMBERSBURG, December 10th, 1872.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Dear Sir:—The paints we received from you have been applied to several of our own buildings and to those of our friends, and have given entire satisfaction in covering qualities, in gloss, and in adaptability to all kinds of surface of material and we cheerfully recommend it, especially to that class of consumers who have to depend upon unknown parties, or painters to mix and furnish materials, wherein we have found the most deception.
Yours, truly,
JACOB STOUFFER & SON.

FROM HON. JOHN WETHERED.

Mr. C. P. Knight:—At the recommendation of a friend, I was induced to apply your patent "Bradley's" paint to my house. I have pleasure in stating that it has proved highly satisfactory, covering more surface than you promised, is more economical, carries better gloss than ordinary paint, and is freer from disagreeable odor.
Yours, Respectfully,
JOHN WETHERED.

BALTIMORE, December 27th, 1871.

C. P. Knight, Esq., Agent for Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint—Dear Sir:—The paint we purchased from you we will cheefully endorse as the best of any kind we have ever used; its covering qualities is everything desired, drying promptly and with a hard gloss which must, we think, resist the action of all kinds of weather. This is our experience, and we can recommend it with certainty, and intend to use it on all occasions where we desire a good job of work.
Very Respectfully,
EMART & QUARTLEY, 270 W. Baltimore St.
House, Sign and Frescoe Painters.

PLEASANTVILLE, HARTFORD CO., MD.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Dear Sir:—I am very happy to inform you that your "Patent Enamel Paint" has given entire satisfaction. I prefer it to any paint I have ever seen used, and recommend it for durability and beauty as paramount to any other.
Very Respetfully,
R. DICKEY, M. D.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

The ever-increasing circulation of this excellent monthly, proves its continued adaptation to popular desires and needs.—Indeed, when we think into how many homes it penetrates every month, we must consider it as one of the educators as well as entertainers of the public mind, for its vast popularity has been won by no appeal to stupid prejudices or depraved tastes.—Boston Globe.

The character which this Magazine possesses for variety, enterprise, artistic wealth, and literary culture that has kept pace with, if it has not led the times, should cause its conductors to regard it with justifiable complacency. It also entitles them to a great claim upon the public gratitude. The Magazine has done good and not evil all the days of its life.—Brooklyn Eagle.
